PcComputerGuy Earns Esteemed 2012 Angie's List Super Service Award

Award reflects company's consistently high level of customer service

PcComputerGuy has earned the service industry-coveted 2012 Angie's List Super Service Award, an honor awarded annually to approximately 5 percent of all the companies rated on Angie's List, the nation's leading provider of consumer reviews on local service companies.

"We are very grateful to receive this prestigious award for the third year in a row. PC Computer Guy was founded for several reasons, one of the most important being the need for friendly, affordable, reliable computer support. I see customer care severely lacking in the computer industry, but we here at PC Computer Guy work very hard to do all we can to make every customer completely satisfied."

"It's a select group of companies rated on Angie's List that can claim the exemplary customer service record of being a Super Service Award winner," said Angie's List Founder Angie Hicks. "Our standards for the Super Service Award are quite high. The fact that PcComputerGuy earned this recognition speaks volumes about its dedication providing great service to its customers."

Angie's List Super Service Award 2012 winners have met strict eligibility requirements, including earning a minimum number of reports, an excellent rating from their customers and abiding by Angie's List operational guidelines.

Service company ratings are updated daily on Angie's List. Companies are graded on an A through F scale in areas ranging from price to professionalism to punctuality. Members can find the 2012 Super Service Award logo next to company names in search results on AngiesList.com.
