Small-Business Hourly Rates:

Small-Business In-Home Service: $85/Hour Rate. Check here for new customer discounts and specials [2]. Also included is a trip-charge which covers travel expenses and the added convenience of computer repair in your own home office! (Trip-charge for small-business customers will range from $20 to $40 for Indianapolis and the surrounding rural areas.) A one-hour minimum applies to Small-Business In-Home service. The cost of any parts needed such as a hard drive, router, etc. will be added to the service charge described above.

Small-Business Remote Access Service: $80 per hour, 1/2 hour minimum. ($40 minimum.)

*Some situations will require a home visit, in which case Remote Access Service and Pricing can not be applied.

In-Shop Service: PcComputerGuy now offers customers the option to drop off their computer and pick it up when the repairs are complete. Advantages of this option include significant cost savings: 1) For In-Shop service, we generally charge a maximum of three hours, even if the job takes longer to complete. (This may not apply in rare circumstances such as data-recovery. Your technician will discuss all of the details with you prior to completing the work.) In-Shop service is billed at $80 per hour with a one-hour minimum. Check here for new customer discounts and specials [2] 2) For In-Shop service, there is no trip-charge, saving customers anywhere from $25-$45 depending on customer type and a reduced hourly rate.
