Award reflects company's consistently high level of customer service

[1]PcComputerGuy has earned the service industry's coveted Angie's List Super Service Award, reflecting an exemplary year of service provided to members of the consumer review service in 2013.

"We are very pleased to have received this prestigious award every year since we joined Angies List. We believe very strongly in providing the highest service at the best value and I believe this award is a sign that we are able to achieve those goals consistently for our clients. We are however never done improving and have plans to make things even better in the coming year!" said Nick Ellis, owner of PcComputerGuy.

"Only about 5 percent of the companies PcComputerGuy competes with in Indianapolis are able to earn our Super Service Award," said Angie's List Founder Angie Hicks. "It's a mark of consistently great customer service."

Angie's List Super Service Award 2013 winners have met strict eligibility requirements, which include an "A" rating in overall grade, recent grade, and review period grade; the company must be in good standing with Angie's List, have a fully complete profile, pass a background check and abide by Angie's List operational guidelines.

Service company ratings are updated daily on Angie's List. Companies are graded on an A through F scale in areas ranging from price to professionalism to punctuality. Members can find the 2013 Super Service Award logo next to company names in search results on AngiesList.com [2].
